EXOSOMEN THERAPY

Exosome therapy is an innovative aesthetic treatment based on the body's own communication signals to support skin regeneration. Highly purified plant-derived exosomes can visibly improve skin structure, stimulate cell renewal and contribute to a fresher, more even complexion. The treatment is considered minimally invasive and is primarily used for skin rejuvenation and revitalisation.

Exosomen Therapie Hair

KOLLAGEN-BIOSTIMULATOR JULÄINE™ (POLY-L- LACTIC ACID)

JULÄINE™ Poly-L-lactic acid is a biocompatible and fully biodegradable collagen biostimulator that specifically activates the skin's fibroblasts. Following treatment, it stimulates the body's natural production of new collagen over several weeks, sustainably improving skin density, firmness and elasticity. The tightening effect does not occur immediately but develops gradually, resulting in a particularly natural, long-lasting and even rejuvenation outcome..

COLLAGEN FILLER KARISMA

The Karisma Collagen Filler is an innovative, injectable biorestorative soft filler composed of recombinant human collagen (type I), non-crosslinked hyaluronic acid and carboxymethylcellulose. It does not act solely through immediate hydration like conventional fillers, but also stimulates the body's own collagen production, tightens the skin and sustainably improves structure, elasticity and volume. Thanks to its biocompatible, natural composition, it is suitable for skin rejuvenation and as a gentle anti-ageing treatment, without creating an "overfilled" appearance.

HYALURON FILLER

Wrinkle treatment, facial contouring, wrinkle reduction and restoration of facial volume with an immediate effect. The shape of the lips and facial contours can also be subtly enhanced. Using fine needles, hyaluronic acid in the form of a smooth gel is injected into the skin, creating a "liquid lift" with no downtime.

SKINBOOSTER

The hyaluronic skin booster procedure involves a stabilised form of hyaluronic acid that delivers moisture to the skin from within over several months, restoring suppleness and softness.

Hyaluronic acid is administered using fine needles or cannulas to the face, neck, décolleté and hands (also ideal for acne scars).

NEUROMODULATION (BOTOX®)

Botulinum toxin A is a neuromodulator that smooths wrinkles (e.g. frown lines and crow's feet), preserves the natural facial expression and helps prevent the formation of expression lines. It is precisely injected into the muscles, relaxing and smoothing them for a period of three to four months. Additional indications include hyperhidrosis (excessive sweating) and bruxism (teeth grinding).

MESOTHERAPIE

This is a gentle and effective method for revitalising and regenerating the skin. After applying a numbing cream, skin-nourishing and firming substances (highly concentrated hyaluronic acid, vitamins, minerals and amino acids) are introduced into the face, neck, décolleté and/or the backs of the hands using very fine needles.

PRP (VAMPIRE LIFT)

Promotes cell regeneration and delivers anti-ageing benefits; with regular use, it improves skin texture and refines pores. It is also a highly effective method for treating both diffuse and hereditary hair loss (androgenetic alopecia). As only the body's own material is used, there is no risk of allergies or adverse reactions.

Using a specialised procedure, platelet-rich plasma (PRP) is obtained from the patient's own blood and then applied as a natural booster—free from foreign substances—via small injections with a fine needle or using a dermapen to the face, neck, décolleté and/or the backs of the hands. Thanks to the application of a numbing cream, the treatment is virtually painless.

MEDICAL NEEDLING

Medical needling, also known as collagen induction therapy (CIT) or percutaneous collagen induction (PCI), is a minimally invasive medical treatment used to improve skin structure (pore reduction; fading of pigmentation disorders) and is well established in scar therapy (acne scars, stretch marks).

Using the Dermapen4® microneedling device, thousands of micro-injuries are created, stimulating increased blood circulation and the renewed production of the body's own wrinkle-filling collagen. Topically applied nutrients such as vitamins, minerals or hyaluronic acid further support this process.

MBR

MBR is continually researching even more effective ingredient systems for demanding skin care on the frontiers of medicine. Its individual treatments are tailored to the different needs of the skin and follow the concept of “OPEN - SUPPLY - CLOSE”, resulting in deep regeneration and rejuvenation of the skin.

PHARMOS NATUR

Pharmos Natur stands for beauty, health and consciousness. Our natural skincare products are created from healing and rejuvenating plants that grow in ecologically intact, living environments. They unfold their full power—tangible on the skin, within the body and in the soul. They support natural regeneration.

This is Natural Longevity—beauty that lasts.

THERMAGE® FLX

Precise stimulation using state-of-the-art radiofrequency impulses that penetrate deep into the skin layers. Biostimulation is an advanced procedure that stimulates collagen production and tightens the skin from within. The result is visibly firmer, smoother skin with improved contour and a long-lasting lifting effect—without surgery or downtime.

STK

Effective, non-invasive lifting method and pain-free alternative to surgery without the downtime. Targeted pulses of heat stimulate the body's own synthesis of collagen, resulting in a tightening of the tissue. High-frequency ultrasound causes irritation in different layers of the skin, which immediately tightens the skin and further strengthens the connective tissue.

CLEAR + BRILLIANT THULIUM LASER

Smoother, more radiant skin in the shortest possible time with minimal downtime—the coveted Korean glow is guaranteed. It reduces pigmentation, sun damage and scars. The gentle fractional laser technology stimulates new collagen formation and visibly refines the complexion—without aggressive procedures. Ideal for anyone seeking fresh, even skin with an immediate glow effect and long-term skin improvement.

HYDRAFACIAL™

Progressive and non-invasive facial treatment, which aims to cleanse, peel, extract and hydrate. The HYDRAFACIAL™ method offers a unique combination of the removal of dead skin cells, deep cleansing and dermal infusion of nutrients in order to improve different skin problems and give the skin a radiant, healthy appearance.

TDA

TDA stands for “transdermal application”, the world's first pain-free and non-invasive therapy system. TDA treatments enable the upper layers of the skin to gently open for the transdermal delivery of selected cell-generating active ingredients, e.g. anti-aging active ingredients using highly concentrated oxygen down to the deepest layers of the skin.

ENDOSPHERES

Special, aesthetic treatment methods, also known as micro-vibration technology. A combination of vibrations, pressure and micro-vibrations, are specifically used to exert massage effects on the skin and the tissue underneath.

EMSCULPT®

EMSCULPT® is the only non-invasive method for building muscle whilst also burning fat. Using HIFEM® technology, electromagnetic pulses are generated, triggering up to 20,000 artificial muscle contractions per sitting, which strengthen and increase the muscle fibres and release fatty acids to reduce fat.

CRYSTAL PRO CRYOLIPOLYSIS

Non-surgical methods that cool localised fat deposits, in a targeted and controlled way, down to temperatures of minus 12°C in order to crystallise and destroy fat cells, without impacting on the skin or surrounding tissue. The dead fat cells are removed via the lymphatic system.
